

Hungary

Dobus Gyorgy. Born 1968 in Trebishov in Czechoslovakia. The Ukrainian national painter, academician Volodymyr Mykita and Boris Kuzma not only influenced him but also helped him with lots of professional advice. At the beginning, naive-style painting appeared in his works, in addition, principles of impressionism and expressionism could be seen in them. Abstract, surrealist works of him have also appeared, there is long series of works in magical surrealism, pop-art style and modern art new style. He has had several individual and international exhibitions in Hungary, Ukraine, Slovakia, Romania, Czech Republic, England, France, Germany, Russia, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Netherlands and USA. Articles have been published about his paintings in several European, USA newspapers, anthologies and catalogues. They have been shown on television channels in Hungary, the Ukraine, Slovakia, Romania, Italy and Vatican. He has received the jubiles award 2002-2012 of the UNIO GALLERY, Budapest and General Assembly of Uzhgorod /Ukraina/ expressed its acknowledgements for his exhibition held there. 2013 and 2014 and 2015 he received David Arts Creative Awards. 2015. he received „Marco Polo International Art Ambassador Prize”, Venice, Italy. 2015. he received „Michelangelo International Prize Artist at the Jubilee”, Palazzo Cardinal Cesi, Roma, Italy. 2015. he received „International Prize Artist at the Castle”, Sala Plenaria Castello Orsini, Roma, Italy. 2016. he received „Prize Jubilee of the Mercy 2016” award for the art work ”The Gharity”, Palace of the Chancellery, Vatican. Took participation in Plein Air and advanced training in Paris and Claude Monet Museum in Giverny with such artists as Anna Filimonova, Edvard Bulatov.

dobusgyorgy@gmail.com

"The mood" 60 x 40 cm.