

Bosnia and Herzegovina

Ahmet Ibukic, Born in 1957

Graduated from Academy of Fine Arts in Sarajevo, department of Painting in the class of prof. Milivoj Unkovic. Postgraduate studies at the Academy of Fine Arts in Sarajevo, under the supervision of prof. Seid Hasanefendic. He was appointed as Professor of Visual Arts at the Pedagogic Faculty, University of Bihać in 2004, and at the Technical University 2012t as an Associate Professor on the Department of Textile Design, University of Bihać. Member of the ULUBiH and ICOM. His name can be found in the “Dizionario Enciclopedico Internazionale d’Arte” 2004/2005”. His artworks are part of the Jordan National art gallery art collection, artwork collection of Queen Rania’s ,art collection of the former Malaysian prime minister Mahathir Mohamad, and also many other art collections all over the world. He lives and works in Bihac as a Senior Curator at the Museum JU Una Sana Canton and the Faculty of Engineering as an Associate Professor of Visual Culture and Design at the University of Bihac. He participated at several art colonies, initiated and lead the International Art Colony “OLD TOWNS in the VALLEY of river UNA. He had several individual and group exhibitions in his home town and abroad.

prof.dr.Sead Misirlić

“Metamorphosis in space” 50 x 50 cm.