

Russia

Anya Rubin.

I was born in Saint Petersburg, Russia in 1967. Throughout my life I have been greatly influenced by Russia's rich cultural heritage. Some of my fondest childhood memories are of Alexander Pushkin's Museum and Memorial Apartment, the State Hermitage Museum, and the State Russian Museum. My summers were spent at my father's house in Komarova where many of Russia's cultural elite lived.

Our neighbors were Georgy Tovstonogov, Dimitri Shostakovich, and many others.

In 1973 we immigrated to Israel, then Germany and finally settled in America.

I have lived in New York ever since. I am a self-taught artist working predominantly in the medium of oil and digital creations.

My range of artistic technique has been shown in museums, galleries and biennales worldwide.

My most recent shows have been in Palermo, Italy at the 2nd International Biennale of Art of Palermo 2015, (Un)Scene art show NYC 2015, Barcelona Biennale, Spain 2015. My work received the International Prize Leonardo Da Vinci in 2016.
