

Eric Blondel is a bubbly self-taught artist. He worked with great energy in various materials, from iron to paper. I got to know him in his native France, at the 8th salon in Anjou in 1998. A censored international exhibition. A few years later, I visited him and saw his many different artistic creations in his allies. He is an artist with a lot on his mind. Curator Leif Nielsen.

"Le chef " Height 104 cm. Iron"

