

Hungary

Gabriella Veress i am was born in 1967 in Hungary, living in Budapest.

I graduated from the Fine Arts Grammar School as a ceramic artist, but I always painted it. The economist graduated from the profession of the original profession.

In 2015 I created a school where I teach drawing, textile sculpture and other creative sessions for adults and children.

My first book is the magical world of Decoupage, and the reader has many techniques.

In 2015 I created a Ver-Deco Art Garnet, which I'm chairing. The aim of the association is to support amateur artists, exhibition organization, applications, courses, camps.

I have made international art prizes in Fine Arts, Fine Arts, Photography and Folk Art.

So far, 143 awards have been awarded, including Hungarian, Romanian, Serbian, Slovakian, Italian, Austrian and German artists. In the field of poetry, I try to gain recognition, poetry and short stories, and the poems are published in 24 verses with musical coverage.

Painting is my life. I paint on canvas with oil technique. My style is a mixture of surrealistic and romantic.
