

Greece

Ioannis Vorgias.

I could characterize the surrealistic expressions of Ioannis Vorgias, as wandering in a dream. But that which fascinates and overwhelms the spectator is the source of expressive colour which reaches the innermost chords of one's soul, chords which have not yet been defined.

Genuine themes surface from a vision of a world seen exclusively by the imagination. Additionally, the completion of the composition, the melancholic disposition which characterizes the mood's setting, as well as the knowledge of those signs which make one guess why the whole world pulsates, behind an austere portrayal. Fotis

Mastichiadis Engraver

I would say that the solid structural composition of his artwork is, one of his qualities. His temperament leads him to virtuosity, to the grandeur of Doric beauty.

Passion... this passion and immense love for art, provides the pulse of a humanitarian uplift, of a new kind of humanism which through symbolic representation, will bring again, a cosmic resurrection of a still state of people. Colour, this dominant element in the paintings of Ioannis Vorgias has a musicality with variations which fade and strengthen ... Vasos Kountouridis Art Critic

Symbolic artworks, based on exceptional architectural formations. This triptych of success, is that, where drawing, expression, but mainly colour, predominates. The charged atmosphere has the reminiscence of life, itself. His dynamic energy, his realistic narration, as well as his expressive symbolism, not only justify, but are a contribution to Art. Kyriakos Valavanis Art Critic

www.borgias.gr borgias-@otenet.gr

"Tenderness " 50 x 60 cm.