Lela Migirov I am a franco-israeli artist-painter working and living part time in Paris and part time in Tel Aviv. In 2018, I was awarded with four international prizes: Leonardo Da Vinci - The Universal Artist, Prize of Nations- tribute to Titian, Prize of Raffaello and Prize of Giulio Cesare. Lela is a member of the IMPACT (Israeli Professional Visual Artists Association) and L'Académie Européenne des Arts France (AEAF). Recently, my works were presented in a few personal exhibitions with a most prominent between them in the City Hall of 6th arrondissement and in La Petite Galerie in Paris, and in Czech Embassy and Ben Amy Gallery in Tel Aviv. My works were exhibited also in Biennale in Venice, in Segnalati in Rome, "Art capital" and Salon d'Automne in Grand Palais, in Salon d'AEAF and XIX<sup>e</sup> Biennale des Artistes du VI<sup>e</sup> in Paris.

"The paintings inspired by Franz Kafka are centered in Migirov's ability to empathize, explore and internalize the depths and humanity of Kafka's always challenging moral dilemmas. Her paintings are expressions of herself, striking images that are reflections of Kafka themes, rather than illustrations. Her talent lies in her freedom to think, and her ability to express herself without mannerism or guises. She is imbued with passion, honesty and love of mankind. She brings to her work a poetic innocence that is genuine and compassionate".
