Marcello Sassoli. Born in 1945.

The arts' critic, M. Vassarotti wrote:

This is a unique opportunity to meet, probably for the first time in your life, a genuine "experimental artist". One might argue that all artists are experimental, but this is true only during a limited period of their life: at a certain stage they settle down and "PRODUCE".

Marcello Sassoli is very different: he is continuously trying out new materials, testing colours ... experimenting with words (in no less than 6? languages which he speaks fluently), writing reviews, constructing rhymes.....launching provocations and expressing awkward (and often politically incorrect) ideas and concepts. In other words he is an all-round, though not yet "complete" artist who, all his life, has been anxiously searching, creating and fighting like a Don Quixote..... and will certainly continue to do so as long as he lives!!!
