Margaretha Gubernale

The pictures by Margaretha Gubernale are a tightrope walk. On the one hand she paints abstract thoughts and on the other hand she use the forms of the nature, for focus the symbolic parable as clearly as possible. Her inspirations she has in the nature, in anthroposophy and in the philosophy. She is participating with her oil painting more than 30 years in the international environment. She was born in Zug, Switzerland, where is her studio and where she lives. She has also the Italian nationality.

“The beauty caresses in loving devotion the lion, which takes a reproachful look out of the picture, although he is himself the cause of the chaos and, although his beauty comes from the wonderful flowers.”
