

Italy

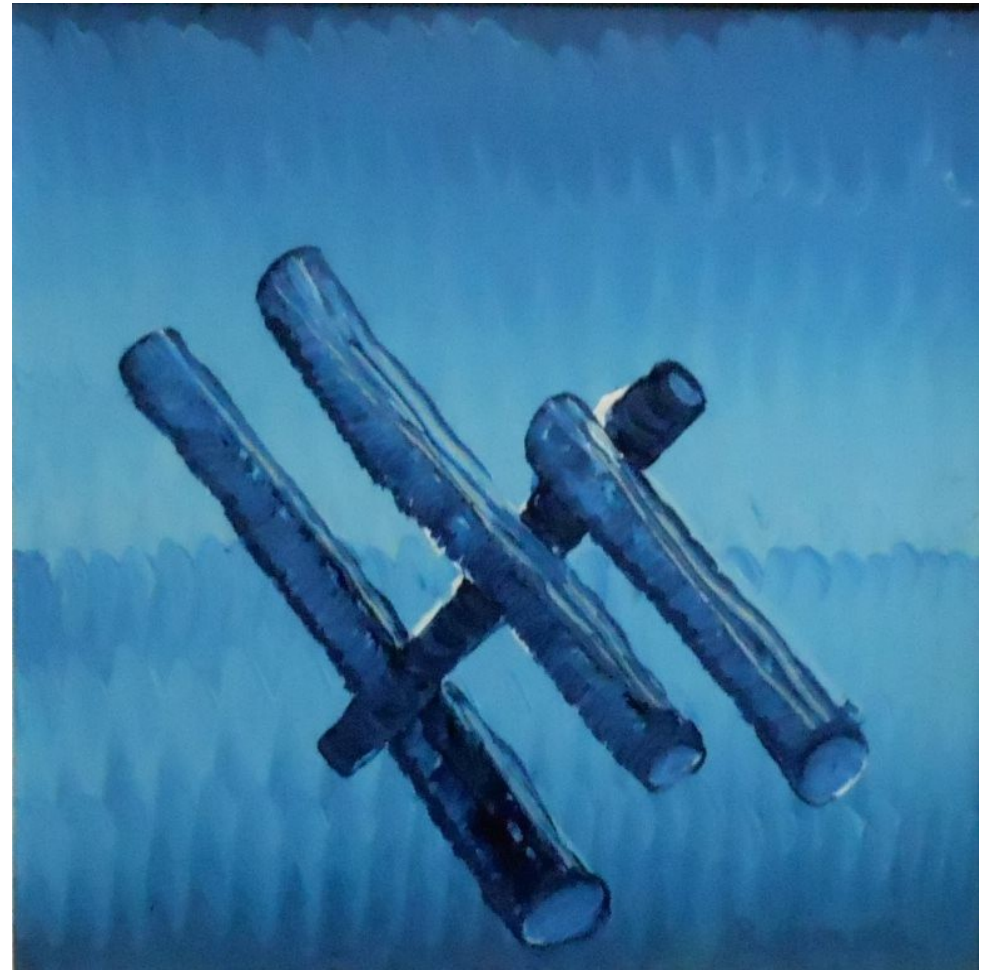

The artist along with Salvatore Russo, at the award ceremony in Venice.

Renzo Gianella born in 1947

He was, originally from the province of Padua, took his first steps in painting in 1965 and was able, over the following years, to count on numerous collaborations with other artists and restorers. He has contributed to the decoration of Venetian churches and villas and has exhibited in numerous exhibitions and art fairs in recent years. Particularly significant is his participation in several editions of the Padua Art Fair, the New York Art Fair, the Edinburgh Exhibition set up in the Scottish capital, the "Mental Adventures" collective in Hamburg and the United Arab Emirates Oscar, with an exhibition in Abu Dhabi. He currently lives and works in Camponogara.

La Galleria del Leone

"Towards the Earth" 40 x 40 cm.